Alumni Association Scholarships for 2022

In May, the PHS Alumni Association awarded three Perry High School students with $1,500 scholarships. Scholarships were possible due to donations and money raised at PHS Alumni events. If you would like to donate to the PHS Alumni Scholarship Fund, please contact pshalumniassoc@hotmail.com or mail to PHS Alumni Association, P.O. Box 148, Perry, OH 44081. Please join us in congratulating the following alumni :

- Mary Harvey – daughter of Stacy Evans Harvey, class of 1987, granddaughter of Dennis Evans, class of 1960 and Sharon Brainard Evans, class of 1962. Mary will attend Ohio State University and major in nursing. Quoting from Mary's application: "I recognize how fortunate I am to attend an exceptional high school like Perry. I am proud of who I am and where I come from, but I am most proud to be a Pirate".
- Ethan Hicks – son of Perry Elementary school teacher Jodi Hicks and Nathan Hicks. Ethan will attend Princeton University and concentrate on economics and pursue certificates in entrepreneurship and finance. Quoting from Ethan's application: "Perry's small size and unique community has profoundly impacted the young man I am today. Because of the diversity of its opportunities, Perry has equipped me for success in a world of increasing complexity. Despite the uncertainty of the future, I know one thing will remain true; I will always be proud to be a Pirate

Brock Sivon – son of Steve Sivon, class of 1994 and grandson of John Sivon, class of 1961. Brock will attend the College of Wooster and will major in environmental science. Quoting from Brock's application: "There are so many inspiring stories – funny moments and awesome memories. You can't forget about the early mornings, the late nights, the homework, the trying and failing, the trying and succeeding, the hardships, the wins and everything in between. Without these things, I wouldn't be the person that I am today. It's the little things that make these four years the best years of my life".
